

The Naked Body A Matter of Perspective

Reminder: Information on currently valid corona-virus pandemic regulations can be found at www.museumkurhaus.de under "Aktuell".

26.11.21 — 16.01.22

Events and education

---

Freitag, 26.11.2021 14.30 – 15.30 and 16.30 – 17.30: Preview tours of the exhibition with the curators of the Hochschule Rhein-Waal and the Museum Kurhaus Kleve; from 18.30: music by DJ Eliza Tryptofun, Maastricht, and a bodypainting performance by Corinna Lenzen, Straelen, from 19.30: Exhibition opening, with speeches

---

Sunday, 28.11.2021 14.00 – 16.00: Workshop “Self Studies” with Kirsten Becken and her students

---

Wednesday, 01.12.2021 14.30 – approx. 15.30: curator tours for members of the Society of Friends of the Museum Kurhaus and Koekkoek-House Cleves e.V.; followed by a coffee and cake break in the lounge. This will be followed (from 16.15 to approx. 17.30) by a podium discussion on the subject of “The Naked Body – A Matter of Perspective”

---

Wednesday, 08.12.2021 18.30 – approx. 20.00: Dipl. Kult.arb. Atlanta Ina Beyer of the Rhine-Waal University of Applied Sciences will deliver a guest lecture on the subject of male homoeroticism, censorship, and unacknowledged desire

---

Saturday, 08.01.2022 14.00 – 16.00: Workshop by curators on the subject of “Body Forms / Body Norms”

---

Wednesday, 12.01.2022 19.30 – approx. 21.30: a showing of the film “Difficult Love” by Zanele Muholi, followed by a discussion moderated by the curators of the exhibition

---

Sunday, 16.01.2022 14.30 – 15.30: curator tours for interested persons. Afterwards, from approx. 15.30 – 17.00, “queer performance” by “mir*pluck”

---

Public tours will take place every Sunday from 11.30 – approx. 12.30

---

Several workshops for children and young people will be held every month (further information can be found at www.museumkurhaus.de and “Museumspädagogik”, “museum educational programme”)